

Superficie segnaletica, variante 2

Dettaglio B

A technical drawing of a road surface. The drawing is enclosed in a blue dotted rectangular border. The top half of the drawing is white. The bottom half is filled with diagonal hatching lines, representing a road surface. A horizontal line separates the white area from the hatched area. A small square is drawn on the hatched area, with a vertical line extending upwards from its top edge to the horizontal line. To the right of this vertical line, the text "Dettaglio B" is written.
